Create a station for relaxation

WHETHER you've got weeks off work or just a couple of days, it's possible to get into the holiday spirit.

Park yourself poolside on a luxury lounge with a cold drink close to hand.

Complete the picture with some cool tunes and an umbrella for strategic shade and there'll be no reason to budge.

If you're hanging out on the veranda, a suspended pod chair is an ideal vantage point for taking in the view.
