TOASTY TOWELS

HANGING AROUND

Save on space – and keep your towels warm and cosy – with this wall-mounted Hawthorn Hill hydronic towel warmer. Connected to a hydronic hot-water central-heating system, it's the ultimate in indulgence from The English Tapware Company.

ENGLISH ELEGANCE

For a more traditional look, try a classic floor-mounted towel warmer such as this Hawthorn Hill one from The English Tapware Company. Made in England from high-quality brass, it makes for an eye-catching feature.

A LITTLE SLICE OF HEAVEN

These days, the bathroom isn't just a place where we get ready for school or work in the morning – it's a place we can retreat to when we need to relax and unwind, so why not make it as comfortable as we can? A large freestanding bath is ideal for a long soak, while heated towel rails and a cosy bathrobe add to the feeling of luxury. Bathroom by Gieffe Interior Environments.
