

WIRED FOR SOUND

Make your headphones as personal as the tunes you listen to with Urbanears, from $69.95. Available in three styles and 14 colours, the entire Swedish-designed range is Nokia, iPhone, and BlackBerry compatible.

QUEEN OF THE CRAFT BLOGS, PIP LINCOLNE, REVEALS THE POWER OF A PERFECT PATTERN IN HER SECOND BOOK, SEW LA TEA DO (HARDIE GRANT, $45), WHICH FEATURES 24 EASY PROJECTS.

NATURAL SELECTION

Summery, sweet and made for easy entertaining, the latest SunnyLIFE range includes bamboo and mango wood tableware, from $12.95, ceramic and rattan bowls and vases, from $14, and melamine outdoor pieces, from $8.95. Bring on barbecue season!

TRAINS, TRAMS & HOOK TURNS

No-one knows a city like the people who live in it, which is why homewares company Make Me Iconic has asked up-and-coming Melbourne talent to create graphics to celebrate the city's icons. The results can be seen on a range of mugs, tea towels, cushion covers and artworks. Pictured below (from left): Iconic transport tea towel, $25; cushion, $80.

MAKE ME ICONIC

BIRTHDAY PRESENCE

AURA may be celebrating 10 years of creating beautiful bedding, but it's the customers who will receive the gift of an even bigger range of homewares. New to the collection are scarfs, towels, table linen and kaftans. Shown here: tie-dye scarf, $89, from Myer.

DIAMOND ANNIVERSARY

It's thick, glossy and full of affordable designs (in fact, 2000 of them are lower in price than last year) – and the 2011 IKEA catalogue also celebrates 60 years in print. While the covers have changed, some products have stood the test of time.

SEE DIRECTORY FOR STOCKIST DETAILS. TEXT BY BIANCA MARTIN