

DARLING CLEMENTINE
FLORENCE THE FOX
WOODLAND TRAY
• $49, Lark (left)

VITRA EDEN TRAY BY ALEXANDER
GIRARD, 1944
• $105,
Space Furniture

SUNNYLIFE
NOOSA
MELAMINE
SERVING
TRAY
• $39.95,
David Jones

Serves you right

Breakfast in bed is a must, not a luxury, with these gorgeous trays

ARJA TRAYS
• $99.95 (set of two),
Amalfi

FINN JUHL TURNING TRAYS
• $325 (S), $350 (M), $450 (L),
Great Dane

MARISSA
MELAMINE TRAY
• $24.95, Laura Ashley

STOCKISTS • Amalfi, ph: (03) 9474 1300, www.albi.com.au; David Jones, city, ph: 3243 9000, www.davidjones.com.au; Great Dane, ph: (03) 9510 6111, www.greatdanefurniture.com; Lark, ph: (03) 5348 3571, www.larkmade.com.au; Laura Ashley, ph: 1800 033 453, www.laura-ashley.com.au; Space Furniture, Fortitude Valley, ph: 3253 6000, www.spacefurniture.com.au

Port of call

Essentials Gifts & Homewares shut up shop in the Wintergarden late last year, but owner Angela Christodoulou has unveiled new digs (there's still an outlet in the Myer Centre) in the Emporium complex. In store now are Parisian-themed trunks (from $35), a pretty alternative to storage boxes. Shop 10, 1000 Ann St, Fortitude Valley, ph: 3216 1900.

Changing rooms

Anyone who has ever felt they could actually live in an Ikea store is not alone. The Ikea "houses" – fully equipped, life-size living spaces within the store – have been a huge part of the chain's appeal since its inception. The Logan showroom has had the same house for five years, and despite receiving oodles of requests from shoppers for the room plans and decor, Ikea is shaking things up a little, with a new house underway. "We've revitalised the first house, but never changed it," says Danielle Dunsmore, a spokeswoman for Ikea. "Now we will gut it and completely start again. It's going to be amazing. They are built as if people live there." The designers and builders have been given a brief, but the house, which will focus on living with children in small spaces, won't open until June. www.ikea.com.au

Good sort

Made a New Year's resolution to get pages and pages of recipes organised? Kikki.K has a limited edition My Recipes Organiser ($39.95) in red, and since it comes with handy divider tabs for sections such as finger food, vegetarian and dessert recipes, you'll never have to scrounge through drawers looking for your favourites again. From Kikki.K, city, ph: 3229 6205. www.kikki-k.com

A little bit Zen

JAB Design's cute new oriental collection, made with tough melamine, is perfect for serving Asian-inspired stir-fries and rice dishes. The lightweight range includes scratch-proof black and red bowls with matching dipping bowls, serving spoons and platters. From $2.99 at homewares and kitchen stores, ph: (02) 8665 4675. www.tomkin.com.au

TELL US something new at brook@qnp.newstld.com.au