

1

Nothing adds zing to a room more than yellow. Use acid shades for a contemporary feel, or buttercup and gold to add traditional brightness.

1 Give your dining room or office a whole new look with a burst of cheerful yellow. Snille swivel chair, $35, IKEA.

2 Lighten up a room in more ways than one with a modern lamp. Kazz lamp in yellow, $49.95, Beacon Lighting.

3 If you're looking for an alternative to florals, try this bird print. Sanderson Finches collection, POA, Domestic Textiles.

4 Scatter your sofa with bright yellow cushions for a fun feel. Origami cushion in Mimosa, $49.95, Rouge Living.

5 Refresh your couch or sun lounger with an indoor/outdoor cushion. SunnyLIFE Kawaii throw cushion, $44.95, David Jones.

6 Make over a dark room and give it a sunny outlook in a day with new carpet. Luminous cut pile nylon carpet, in Sunstar, about $200/lineal metre fully installed, Godfrey Hirst.

7 Use complementary fabrics from the same collection to give your living room a professional finish. Camengo Mekong collection, from $170/m, Zepel Fabrics.

8 Embrace bright papers and fabrics, the more intense the combination, the better. Osborne & Little Sariskar Aravalli wallpaper in colour 01, $250/10m roll, Mokum.

SAY YES TO YELLOW

2

3

6

Yellows are so adaptable: acid with purple,

4

5

9 Add an elegant touch with luxurious fabrics. St Germain Jacquard curtains, from $139/m; Cathcart Pale Bamboo Roman blind, $129/m; Mikela Cream round cushion, $129; Claudette Gold cushions, $129, Laura Ashley.

10 The coming of spring is a great excuse for new bedding. Lifestyle Wave bed linen in Oasis, queen quilt cover, $219; standard pair of pillowcases, $59.95, Aura.

11 Investing in eye-catching wallpaper is a sure-fire way to inject a room with new style. Casmanca Cape Grim wallpaper, from $270/10m roll, Zepel Fabrics.

For shopping details, see Stockists page

8